

PROGRAMME

RESEARCH COOPERATION FOR DEVELOPMENT

40 years of Research Cooperation between Sweden and Tanzania

8–9 November, Hyatt Regency Dar es Salaam, Kilimanjaro

PROGRAMME

40 years of Research Cooperation between Sweden and Tanzania

8–9 November, Hyatt Regency Dar es Salaam, Kilimanjaro

8th NOVEMBER

8.00–9.00	Registration and visit to booth and poster exhibitions
TIME	PRESENTER	THEME
9.00–9.05	Tanzania Live music	National Anthems
9.00–9.05	Nathalie Besér, Moderator	Welcome and presentation of the programme
9.05–9.10	HE. Katarina Rangnitt, Amb. of Sweden to Tanzania	Introductory Note – 40th Anniversary of Swedish Tanzania Research Cooperation
9.10–9.20	Prof. Joyce Ndalichako, Hon. Minister ES&T, Tanzania	The Importance of Knowledge for Development in Tanzania
9.20–9.30	H.E. Ms. Samia Suluhu Hassan, Vice President of Tanzania	Guest of Honour
9.30–9.40	Dr. Karin Rödning, State Secretary at Ministry of HE&Research, Sweden	The Role of HE and Research in Sweden
9.40–9.55	Dr. Berit Olsson, Former Head of Sida/SAREC	Research Makes Sense – Why research became an important element of Swedish development cooperation
9.55–10.10	Ms. Carin Jämtin DG, Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency	Reflections on History of Research Cooperation in Tanzania – Looking Forward
10.10–10.50	Health Break and visits to booth and poster exhibitions
10.50–11.45	Prof. S. Many, Director Research and Publication (UDSM) Prof. Apolinary Kamuhabwa, Dep. Vice Chancellor, MUHAS Prof. G. Kassenga, DVC-AC (ARU) Dr. Dugushilu Mafunda, Ag. Director General (COSTECH)	The Impact of Swedish Support to Institutional Capacity Building and Research at UDSM, MUHAS, ARU and COSTECH
11.45–12.00	Prof. Fred Mhalu, Department of Microbiology and Immunology, MUHAS	Building a Research University – Tanzanian universities' experience of Swedish research cooperation and collaboration with Swedish universities
12.00–12.10	Prof. Göran Tomson, Karolinska Institute/ SIGHT-Swedish Royal Academy of Sciences	The Importance of Swedish/Tanzanian University Collaboration – A perspective from Swedish universities

12.10–12.20	Prof. A. Mkenda, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Tanzania	Evidence Based Knowledge and its Importance for Informed Policy
12.25–12.35	Dr. F. Msuya, Senior Researcher, IMS/UDSM	Evidence based knowledge and its Importance for Society at Large – IMS researchers' support to coastal communities and cluster firms living of marine resources
12.35–12.45	Patrik Hadenius, CEO, "Research and Progress" and Popular Science Publishing House	Research Communication – Importance of Evidence Based Knowledge in a World of Increasing Fact Resistance
13.00–14.00	Lunch and visits to booth and poster exhibitions
14.00–14.05	Nathalie Besér, Moderator	Introducing the panel and the theme
14.05–15.00	Dr. M. G. Bilal, Prof. R. Mukandala (UDSM), Dr. Hassan Mshinda, Senior researcher (COSTECH), Prof. W. Anderson (UDBS) Prof. R. Johansson, SLU AM Oltorp, Head of Research Unit, Sida	Research and Development in Tanzania – Current and Future Challenges
15.00–15.40	Discussion	All
15.40–15.45	Moderator	Summing up discussion
15.45–15.55	Prof. Evaristo Liwa, VC, ARU	Closing speech with impressions of the first day
15.55–16.00	Moderator	Announcement for next day
16.00–17.30	Mingle + Live Swedish folk music

9th NOVEMBER

8.00-9.00	Registration – visits to booth and poster exhibitions
TIME	PRESENTER	COMMENT
9.00–9.05	Live music	National Anthems
9.05–9.10	Nathalie Besér, Moderator	Welcome and outline of the day
9.10–9.40	Key Note Speaker: Dr. Jesper Vasell, Chalmers University	How Does Academic Research Result in Innovation with Societal Impact?
9.40–10.05	Dr. Matern Mtolera, Institute of Marine Sciences, UDSM	Sustainable use of Marine Resources and Poverty Alleviation in Tanzania Coastal Zones
10.05–10.30	Prof. Nancy Marobhe, Ardhi University	Enhancing Access of Rural Households to Drinking Water by Treating Mud-laden Water using Local Plant Seeds

CONTINUED PROGRAMME 9th NOVEMBER

TIME	PRESENTER	COMMENT
10.30–10.55	Prof. Said Aboud Dr. Tumaini Nagu, MUHAS	Towards Improved Diagnostics, Monitoring, Prevention and Control of HIV Epidemic in Tanzania
10.55–11.20	Prof. Nerey Mvungi, UDSM	IGrid – Enhancing Electrical Power System in Tanzania
11.20–11.45	Dr Micca Seth, Mikocheni Agricultural Research Institute (MARI)	Development of tissue culture innovations for increased production of pineapples in Tanzania
11.45–12.10	Prof. Muganyizi, MUHAS	Violence Against Women and Children in Tanzania
12.10–13.30	Lunch and visits to booth and poster exhibitions
13.30–13.35	Nathalie Bessér, Moderator	Continuation of the day
13.35–14.00	Prof. Felix Chami, Dept. Archeology, UDSM	30, 000 Years Ago – What can we learn from Archeological Research on the Swahili coast?
14.00–14.25	Dr. Daniel Msangi, ARU	Unplanned Urban Expansion and Livelihoods in Dar es Salaam – Implications for Practice and Policy
14.25–14.50	Prof. Omary Minzi, MUHAS	Challenges to end malaria – The contribution from Tanzanian researchers
14.50–15.15	Prof. Donatha D. Tibuhwa, UDSM	Mushroom Based Research for Improved Livelihoods in Tanzania
15.15–15.40	Prof. Angwara Kiwara, Dr. Mughwira Mwangu, MUHAS	Training Many, but Deploying a Few – Human Resources for Health in Rural Tanzania
15.40–16.05	Dr. Henry Chalu, UDBS, UDSM	What can make Accounting System Useful for Efficient Service Delivery? The case of local governments in Tanzania
16.05–16.30	Mr. Furaha Kabuje, COSTECH	Innovative Clusters- Researchers' Support to Small Business Firms in Tanzania
16.30–16.35	Moderator	Brief wrap up and invite to closure
16.35–16.45	Prof. R. Mukandala, VC UDSM	Closing speech
16.45–18.30	Mingle + Live Swedish folk music	